

Mr. Potter's Pet, 1996, Dick King-Smith, San Val, Incorporated, 1996

Now that Mr. Potter is finally living on his own, he can buy the pet of his dreams. But instead of a nice cat or dog, he ends up with a bad-tempered mynah who can really talk! Mr. Potter and Everest share a bachelor pad until it becomes evident that they need some help keeping house. And who should apply to be their housekeeper but Mr. Potter's childhood sweetheart? In the satisfying conclusion, both man and bird find true love. Mark Teague's charming illustrations add to the humor and complement King-Smith's witty text perfectly.
